

What a week!!!

Wow! Its been a very big week!! Some super busy days, a Roxby trip, a new locum and a fantastic Vet

PHEW!

student!! Phew!!

Thank you!

But – you know what – we all pulled together AND WE MADE IT!!! Thankyou to each and every one of you for putting in over and above this week!! Your combined contribution has made it work!!

High 5

A couple of shout out High 5's this week – To our very own pocket rocket – JiaYi. She buzzes about all week, never stopping. We can always rely on her to get the job done! So, a super big high 5 to J!!!

And also to Donna – a great week in grooming and then stepping in on Friday in the reception role. Well done!! And Great Work!!

Team reminder

A couple of reminders this week – Nurses in Co-consult – PLEASE, PLEASE, PLEASE make sure you record your initials in the consult, AND complete the checklist!! Thanks

Bowling – has been rescheduled for 31/7 6.30pm. We'll put out the meals list the week before, just to reconfirm meals and numbers.

Whats on this week?

A big week of surgeries this week! Naomi may be staying on a bit longer, which will really help out!! Ill be in touch with Marcus to see what time he might be able to give us, although he is committed at Kadina until the end of July.

Have a great time Liz, but avoid all those isolation places!!*

Next week we have two Caritas students in the clinic – Emily and Ayesha, please make them feel welcomed; Im sure there will be heaps for them to do!!

Biggest Win

Biggest win goes to all of you!! Thanks for holding up the REDGUM values – it has been really evident this week. Great team work!!

Together,
we win.

Focus Point

Next week we are looking at making some changes in preparation for when we have only one Vet.

Lets keep that huddle going – it's a quick two or three minutes around 3.30 or 4 – where we get to say how we are going, if we need help, or if we have free time to help each other. It works well and really means we are coming together as a team, helping each other when its needed.

Happy Weekend Team!!
